8.3 The Designated Director, if deems fit, may call for further information or particulars from the Whistle Blower and at his/her discretion, consider involving any other / additional Officer of the Company and/or Committee and/or an outside agency for the purpose of investigation.

8.4 The investigation by itself would not tantamount to an accusation and is to be treated as a neutral fact finding process.

8.5 The investigation shall be completed normally within 90 working days of the receipt of the protected disclosure and is extendable by such period as the Designated Director deems fit.

8.6 Any member of the Designated Director having any conflict of interest with the matter shall disclose his / her concern / interest forthwith and shall not deal with the matter. In such instance, the Board of Directors shall appoint another Director or Employee to act as the Designated Director for that specific Protected Disclosure only. The original Designated Director can process other Protected Disclosures which he / she does not have any conflict of interest.

9. PROTECTION

9.1 No unfair treatment will be meted out to a Whistle Blower by virtue of his / her having reported a Protected Disclosure under this Policy. The Company, as a policy, condemns any kind of discrimination, harassment, victimization or any other unfair employment practice being adopted against Whistle Blowers. Complete protection will, therefore, be given to Whistle Blowers against any unfair practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination / suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle Blower's right to continue to perform his / her duties / functions including making further Protected Disclosure.

9.2 Unfair treatment protection shall not apply if the Whistle Blower has intentionally behaved or acted in inappropriate manners at work or failed to perform the work as required by his / her position in the company. In such situation, the Whistle Blower is subjected to the investigation and, if established, will be dealt with in accordance to the existing company's disciplinary policy.

9.3 The Company will take steps to minimize difficulties, which the Whistle Blower may experience as a result of making the Protected Disclosure. Therefore, if the Whistle Blower is required to give evidence in criminal or disciplinary proceedings, the Company will arrange for the Whistle Blower to receive advice about the procedure, etc.

9.4 A Whistle Blower may report any violation of the above clause to the Designated Director, who shall investigate into the same and recommend suitable action to the senior management.

9.5 The identity of the Whistle Blower shall be kept confidential to the extent possible and permitted under law. Whistle Blowers are cautioned that their identity may become known for reasons outside the control of the Designated Director (e.g. during investigations carried out by Investigators).

9.6 Designated Director and any other Employee or Director assisting in the said investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle Blower.

10.2 Technical and other resources may be drawn upon as necessary to augment the investigation. All Investigators shall be independent and unbiased both in fact and as perceived. Investigators have a duty of fairness, objectivity, thoroughness, ethical behaviour, and observance of legal and professional standards.

10.3 Investigations will be launched only after a preliminary review which establishes that:

- i. the alleged act constitutes an improper or unethical activity or conduct, and
- ii. either the allegation is supported by information specific enough to be investigated, or matters that do not meet this standard may be worthy of management review, but investigation itself should not be undertaken as an investigation of an improper or unethical activity.

11. DECISION AND REPORTING

11.1. If an investigation leads to a conclusion that an improper or unethical act has been committed, the Designated Director shall recommend to the Board of Directors of the Company to take such disciplinary or corrective action as it may deem fit.

11.2 Any disciplinary or corrective action initiated against the Subject as a result of the findings of an investigation pursuant to this Policy shall adhere to the applicable personnel or staff conduct and disciplinary procedures.

11.3 A quarterly report with number of complaints received under the Policy and their outcome shall be placed before the Designated Director and the Board.

11.4 A Whistle Blower who makes false allegation of unethical & improper practices or about alleged wrongful conduct shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary action in accordance with the rules, procedures and policies of the Company. The Whistle Blower can be subjected to civil or criminal legal prosecutions brought about by the Subject for raising the false allegation. The company will not bear responsibility to protect or assist the Whistle Blower.

12. CONFIDENTIALITY

12.1 The Whistle Blower, Designated Director, the Subject and anybody involved in the process shall, maintain confidentiality of all matters under this Policy, discuss only to the extent or with those persons as required under this policy for completing the process of investigations and keep the papers in safe custody.

13. DISQUALIFICATIONS

13.1 While it will be ensured that genuine Whistle Blowers are accorded complete protection from any kind of unfair treatment as herein set out, any abuse of this protection will warrant disciplinary action.

13.2 Protection under this Policy would not mean protection from disciplinary action arising out of false or bogus allegations made by a Whistle Blower knowing it to be false or bogus or with a mala fide intention.

13.3 Whistle Blowers, who make any Protected Disclosures, which have been subsequently found to be mala fide, frivolous or malicious, shall be liable to be prosecuted by the company or the Subject

14. ACCESS TO PUBLIC OR SOCIAL MEDIA

14.1 The Whistle Blower must not, in any circumstances, communicate, in any form or medium, to the public, the public media or social media of the Protected Disclosure or part of it. In cases which the Whistle Blower communicate with the public or social media, this Policy will cease to apply.

15. COMMUNICATION

15.1 Directors and Employees shall be informed of the Policy by publishing on the notice board. .

15.2 As per Section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013, the details of this mechanism shall be disclosed by the Company on www.aisats.in i.e. its website and in the Board' report.

16. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

16.1 If a conflict of Interest arises due the involvement of the Designated Director, the Designated Director shall declare it to the Board immediately or as soon as practical. Thereafter, the Board shall nominate another Director as "Designated Director" to resolve that matter.

16.2 In the circumstances where a complaint is lodged against the Director/ Board and there is conflict of interest exists such that there is no further senior authority to escalate the matter, then Director/Board can approach to any statutory/lawful authority as stipulated within the laws of India.

17. RETENTION OF DOCUMENTS

17.1 All Protected disclosures in writing or documented along with the results of Investigation relating thereto, shall be retained by the Company for a period of 5 (five) years or such other period as specified by any other law in force, whichever is longer.

18. AMENDMENT

18.1 The Company reserves its right to amend or modify this Policy in whole or in part, at any time without assigning any reason whatsoever. However, no such amendment or modification will be binding on the Directors and employees unless the same is not communicated in the manner described as above.
