

AISATS supported school at Hyderabad with infrastructure facilities !

AISATS HYD has supported the students of Hyderabad's Mandala Parishad Pradhamikonnatha Paatasala (Upper Primary School) in the village Kavvaguda under Shamshabad Mandal with much needed infrastructural aid. The infrastructure upgrade will not only provide the students with high-quality educational facilities but will also prepare them for a better future.

AISATS employees volunteered to provide the Mandala Parishad Pradhamikonnatha Paatasala with the facilities it lacked. The initiative was aimed to provide high-quality educational facilities and to improve sanitation conditions at the school. To achieve these objectives, AISATS contributed books, library shelves, tables and benches for the classrooms, and sports goods for recreational activities. The volunteers had arranged construction of canteen for students to have their mid-day meals comfortably. Additionally, toilets were also built at the school to promote good hygiene practices among the students.

All these facilities will benefit 141 individuals including 62 boys, 72 girls and 7 teachers !
